

CONTENT

Preface to the Second Edition	9
1 THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF ICONICITY IN LANGUAGE	11
1.1 Metaphor, Polysemy, Homonymy.
Iconic and Symbolic Thought	11
1.2 Functionality. Two Meanings. Visualizing	18
1.3 The Metaphor in Visual Media and Texts.
Arbitrariness. Crossovers	22
1.4 Identification and Interpretation of Metaphor.
Traditions in Research	28
2 PRESUPPOSITIONS OF METAPHOR	31
2.1 The Model of Substitution. Predication vs Attribution.
Position of Metaphor. Sem-Analysis	31
2.2 Metaphor as Shortened Simile. The Context Marker.....	38
2.3 Metaphor as Idea, Intercultural Tool and in Translations	41
3 THE EVIDENCE FOR CLASSICAL METAPHOR	47
3.1 Double Sense Structure. Reference.
Metaphor as an Exceptional Device	47
3.2 Visualisation as Ideal Reference and Substitute for Experience	53
3.3 Consequences. The Critical Merit of Intention.
The Model of Non-Literal or Transferred Meaning	58
4 HOW METAPHOR FADES AWAY	69
4.1 A Question of the Semantic and Metaphorical Reservoir	69
4.2 The Conventional Metaphor. Criteria.
The Tricky Historical Background	74
4.3 Searle's Position	84
4.4 Instead of a Summary:
Metaphor as Conversational Implicature	88
5 THE 20TH CENTURY DISCOVERS METAPHOR	91
5.1 The Theory of Interaction (Richards, Black)	91

5.2	Criticism of Weinrich. His 'Bildfeld'.
	From the Symbolic to the Indexical Type of Signs	108
5.3	Criticism of Conceptualism (Lakoff, Johnson)	118
5.4	More Questions for Conceptualism. Blending Theory (Fauconnier, Turner)	126
Bibliographies and References		133
Diagrams and Tables		144