

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	3
Introduction.....	5

I. Theoretical Framework: From Humanism to Postanthropocentric (Post-)Humanism

1. Posthumanism – Yet Another 'Post' to Add to Critical Theory

1.1 Brief Survey: The Emergence of 'Post'.....	15
1.2 Excursion: Past Experiences with the Prefix: Postmodernism.....	18
1.3 Conclusion: How to Tackle Yet Another 'Post'.....	22

2. Humanism – Reviewed, Negotiated, Criticised, Defended, Reconceptualised

2.1 Terminological Accuracy: Challenging the Monolithic Account of Humanism.....	27
2.2 Methodological Accuracy: A Critique of Flawed Reasoning in Anti-Humanist Positions.....	30
2.3 The Plurality, Inescapability and Utility of Humanism: An Apologetic Review.....	37
2.4 Anthropocentrism and Its Consequences: The Relevant Critique of Humanism.....	52

3. Posthumanism: A Review and Critique of Less Productive Theories

3.1 Popular Posthumanisms: From Techno-Utopian Visions to Bioconservative Defences.....	67
3.2 Misanthropic Posthumanism: Object-Oriented Ontology Versus Object-Oriented Inquiry.....	80

4. Critical Posthumanism

4.1 Ancestors, Relatives, Descendants: A Genealogy of Critical Posthumanism.....	89
4.2 Conclusion: Critical Posthumanism as a Post-Anthropocentric Reconfiguration of Humanism	122

II. Analysis: Critical Posthumanism in Selected Works of 21st Century English Fiction

5. 21st Century English Fiction and Its Contribution to the Posthumanist Debate
5.1 The Value of Literature for Critical Theory, the Value of Fiction for Posthumanism.....	127
5.2 The Selected Canon: A Brief Commentary.....	132
6. Margaret Atwood – The MaddAddam Trilogy
6.1 Real Versus Ersatz and Predator Versus Prey: Capitalist and Patriarchal Structures in Atwood's Future Society.....	141
6.2 ChickieNobs, Pigoons, Crakers, and Human-Craker Hybrids: The Transgression of Species Boundaries and the Negotiation of Humanist and Posthumanist Discourses.....	155
7. Cormac McCarthy – The Road
7.1 Food as Capital, Food as Life: Anthropocentric Structures and Their Apocalyptic Effects.....	173
7.2 “In What Direction Did Lost Men Veer?” Eating With the Other as a Posthumanist Outlook.....	183
8. Ruth Ozeki – All Over Creation
8.1 Totalitarian, Capitalist, and Patriarchal Strains on Society: The Politics of Profit and Domination.....	197
8.2 Towards a Posthuman Society: Alternative, Multicultural, and Interspecies Communities.....	206
9. Paolo Bacigalupi – The Windup Girl, “The Calorie Man”, and “Yellow Card Man”
9.1 Claim, Possess, Use, Abuse: The Demons of Hypercapitalism in Bacigalupi's 'Windup World'.....	219
9.2 “We Should All Be Windups” The Interconnectedness of Lives, the Destabilisation of Ontologies.....	233
10. David Mitchell – Cloud Atlas
The Recurrence of Exploitation and Domination and the Resistant Forces of a Collective Ethics.....	247
Conclusion.....	281
Bibliography.....	287